1. As I sat a - long the high - way in my rags of filth and shame, I _____
 2. There were peo - ple all a - round me who _____ told me to be still. They _____
 3. There was si - lence on the high - way and a won - der in my soul. As He heard a voice with - in the crowd who spoke the Sav - ior's name. I _____ did not want Him both - ered _____ by one so poor, so ill. They _____ paused to have me brought to Him, the Spir - it took con - trol. I _____ felt the throng press 'round me, and I knew that He was near. So I _____ said He was too bus - y with the ones who pressed His way. But I _____ cast a - way my gar - ments. I a - rose and came to Him. And He _____ cried a - loud to Je - sus Christ _____ in hopes that He would hear! cried a - loud to Je - sus Christ, _____ "Have mer - cy here, I pray!" Je - sus stood took a - way my blind - ness _____ and for - gave me all my sin!
