

Five Loaves and Two Fishes

Words and Music by Richard J. Hughes

B $\flat$       C $\flat$ m C $\sharp$ dim      B $\flat$       E $\flat$       E $\flat$ 6      B $\flat$

1. The mul - ti - tude was hun - gry for food that they might eat. The dis -
 2. The eve - ning now was com - ing; the place was cold and bare. The
 3. The Sav - ior took the fish - es and loaves the lad had brought. The dis -

E $\flat$       B $\flat$       C9      F ci - ples, they were wor - ried: they looked and saw de - feat. And the vil - lag - es, they were dis - tant; and the peo - ple hun - gered there. And the ci - ples, they were watch - ful: God's les - son they were taught. And with

B $\flat$       C $\flat$ m C $\sharp$ dim      B $\flat$       E $\flat$       B $\flat$ cry they gave to Je - sus was, "Send that crowd a - way." They food they found to of - fer, from one who was so small, They faith Christ looked toward heav - en and blessed the food for all. They